JUMBO BOOK

FORE

THAT THE MEMORIES SURROUNDING FOUR OF THE HAPPIEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES MAY REMAIN WITH US AND GROW EVER DEEPER AND MORE VALUABLE.

THE CLASS OF 1937 PRESENTS THE

JUMBO BOOK AS A PICTORIAL REC
OLLECTION OF THESE COLLEGIATE

FRIENDSHIPS AND EXPERIENCES.

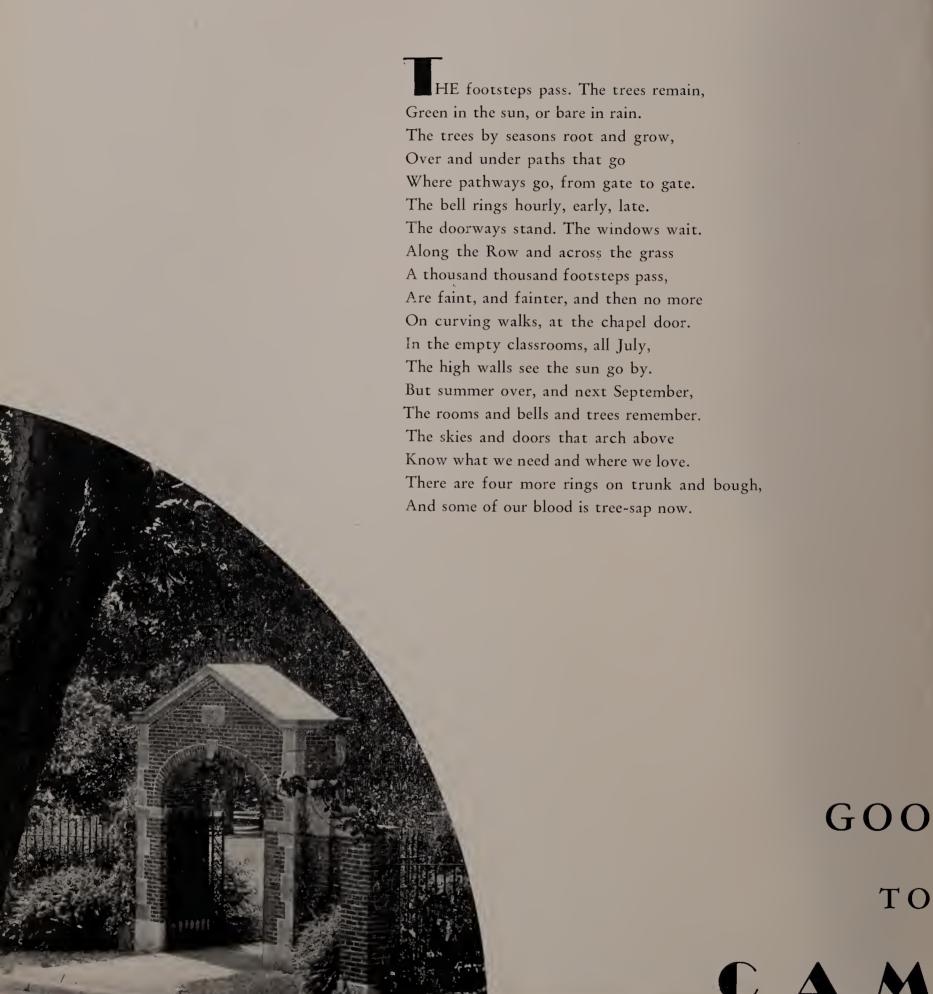

TO ONE who, since his association with the college in 1925, has striven to further the success and progress of his Alma Mater.

To one who has won the respect and admiration of those whose privilege it has been to know him as a teacher and a friend.

DEAN CHARLES GOTT

The work we did, and all we said, Or hoped, or thought, is never dead, Never forgotten, but lives, lives here, All rich and real, all known and near. This is the campus, year by year— This is the College, name by name— By games, by loves, by books, by laughter Living till now and long hereafter. This is the way our footsteps came. None of the least of them is lost. The oldest tree in the cold wind tossed, The brightest room on a friendly night, The solemn pillars round and white And strong forever under the roof, Are all we need of promise and proof. We walked the paths. We heard the bells. We know the story the campus tells.

To the Editor of the 1937 JUMBO BOOK

Dear Sir:

The College annual, which you are publishing as the latest in the long series of JUMBO BOOKS, is of great interest and consequence to all students in the College; but to members of the senior class it is of special significance. To them, therefore, the message which you asked me to write is addressed.

Friends of 1937—When we talked together at our first meeting four years ago, you may remember I told you that your admission to the College meant not only that privileges of great value were to be yours, but also that grave responsibilities were laid upon you. For you, as college students, those responsibilities will be intensified. By your support of this institution which engages your interest and affection—not so much by the gifts you bring her or the direct help you give her, but by the influence you exert through the reputation you establish for her and for yourselves—you in some degree lift higher the level of intelligence on which finally depends all progress of mankind. Such is the consequence of College loyalty; furthermore, College loyalty reacts upon those who display it, helping them to keep high their ideals, stimulating them to make the most of themselves.

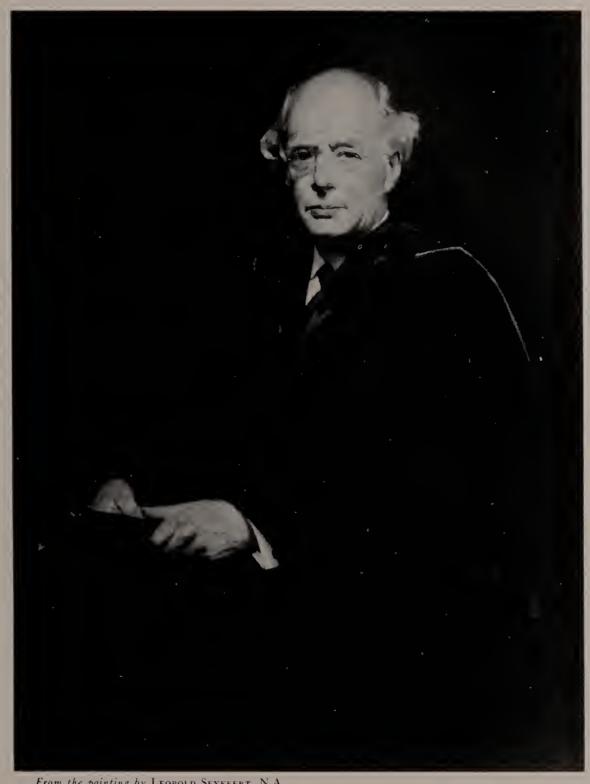

Those of us who remain behind after you have gone your several ways into the world, the President of the College and all your friends in the College, will miss you when you have left us. Come back to us as often as you can, call on us for help when you think that we can assist you, and lose no opportunity to assure us of your loyalty.

Sincerely,

JOHN ALBERT COUSENS

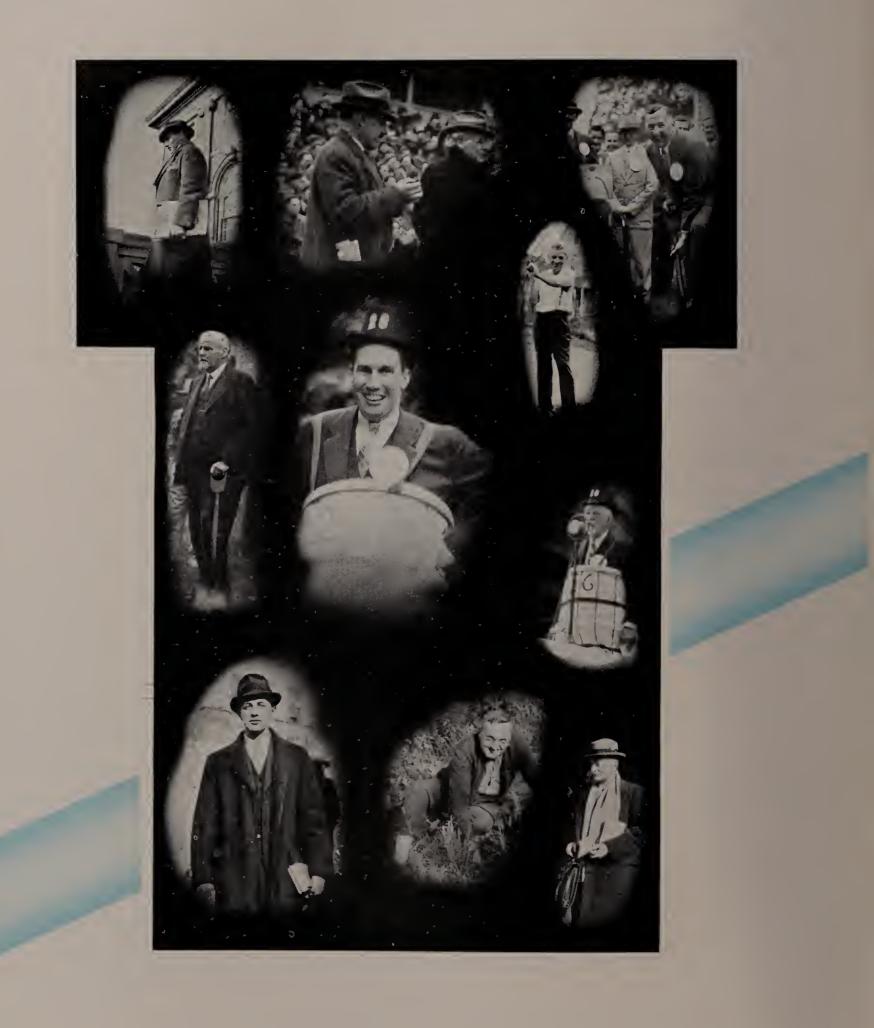

President

THE THIRTY-

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF

HONORARIES

The election of a Tufts man to one of the class honorary societies is indeed an honor, surpassed by but few on the Hill.

This year, Tower Cross is represented by George Baker, Bob Boyd, Bill Goodall, Art Goodwin, Rog Keith, Lew Kyrios, Jim Lillis, Linc Redshaw, Jack Rendall, and Tony Spath.

In our Junior year, we elected Red Bentley, Paul Bratenas, Bob Boyd, Goodall, Keith, Kyrios, Rendall, Redshaw, Spath, and Bill Young to represent the Class in the Lvy Society.

Sword and Shield in our Sophomore year found Dave Bowers, Bentley, Johnnie Boyd, Bob Boyd, Charlie Foberg, Goodall, Keith, Kyrios, Lillis, Redshaw, Spath, and Dick Stewart as members.

PUBLICATIONS

Tufts publications are an important item of extra-curricular activity. The Tufts Weekly this year under the capable direction of Brad Coolidge has shown many improvements. Assisting him were other Thirty-Seveners, Bill Hawkins, Bob Jarvis, and Izz Shulman.

The Jumbo Book this year is better than ever because of its capable editors, Leigh Harris and Paul Philpott (Blush, you guys!). And that noble Freshman Bible, the Ivy Book, was edited by Red Bentley and Bob Boyd.

In debating, Coolidge was President of the Debating Council his Junior year, and manager this year with Pete Petravice as President. Dave Rose and Norm Kellett have also been active debaters.

Pen, Paint, and Pretzels was particularly busy this year with its plays and dramatic rallies. This group was headed by Dave Rose, and assisted by Sumner Charm, Phil LaFortune, Doc Lane, Izz Shulman and Dick Parks.

SPORTS

Undefeated teams seemed to feature the activities of the Class of 1937 in athletics.

We started off with an undefeated freshman football team, the first in the history of the College, under the leadership of Gootch Lavargna and the managership of Dave Young.

In the famous fall of '34, Jack Rendall, Rog Keith, Charlie Foberg, Lew Kyrios, George Baker, and Tony Spath were lettermen of that undefeated, untied football team, with Jack being elected to the captaincy for the following season.

The wrestling team that winter was also undefeated. Ray Pagan was one of Tufts N.E.I. champions while By Hahn, Al Slate, Bill Errgong, and Dick Stewart were also members of the team.

Another first among Tufts undefeated teams was the cross-country team in the fall of 1935. Under the leadership of Gene Paré, and assisted

ADMINISTRATION

Two important administrative organizations of the undergraduate extra-curricular activities are Student Council and the Athletic Association. Rog Keith, Brad Coolidge, and Al Bracy head the former organization, one that has this year devised a new and better system of organization. Lew Kyrios, Bob Boyd, and Bill Ringer head the Athletic Association.

There is still another important department in our student organization. This is the noise department, otherwise known as the Cheerleaders Incorporated. Head man of the company is Dick Kelley (French pronunciation, please) who leads the vocal efforts of the College.

CLASS-LIGHTS

Numerous indeed were the high-lights and low lights of our four years at Tufts.

We started that year with a class of 302 strong. Well do we remember our first battle with the Sophomores when under the leadership of Bill Ringer we took on all comers in a pitched battle on the Rez, and it did take the Seniors and Juniors to throw us off. Then there was our Freshman Banquet under toastmaster By Hahn when the Boyds were almost captured by the Sophs, but returned in the nick of time. It was in that fall that we first saw those "At-the-last-meeting-of-the-Committee-on-Promotions" letters, telling us to get on the ball. And we walked away with our flags that year too.

267 returned to the battle in our

Sophomore year. That was a most momentous fall with our undefeated football team. Another successful banquet, and again we walked off victorious in interclass competition, and duly hung the flags of '38 upside-down. That was the year of the big snow when our mid-years looked like they might be called off for a while, but we only missed the first half-day.

We really felt we were getting somewhere when we hit our Junior year, all 220 of us. Junior week end was the big event of that year. Don Simmonds was our Junior Day orator, ably assisted by Lennie (Oslogow) Goldberg. The Prom was a big success, thanks to Ivy Society and Joe Haymes. But we never could understand where all those elephant decorations went. And right here, let it be said that our Junior blazers are not waiters' jackets!

At last we hit the last stretch, at least 206 of us did. It seemed pretty darned hard to get down to work, and we started worrying about jobs by Harry Collyer, Steve Starr, George Duffy, and Dick Hunt, these harriers turned in a record of five wins and no defeats.

Last spring, the track team also turned in an undefeated record. Members of this team from the Class of '37 were Paul Bratenas, Gene Paré, Steve Starr, Chet Ingraham, George Duffy, and Joe Smith.

Besides the two already mentioned, there were other members of the Class who captained teams their Junior year. Dave Goldenberg headed the tennis team last year, and Felix Fiocchi the golf team.

Rog Keith led the 1936 gridders with Bill Ringer as manager; Steve Starr led the harriers with Chet Foss as manager; Russ Willoughby the soccer team, Dick Parks as manager; Lew Kyrios and Art Goodwin the basketball team; Dick Stewart and Don Simmonds the wrestlers; Linc Redshaw and Red Finn the lacrosse men; Tony Spath and Phil Kramer the baseball team; Mike Ginsberg and Norm Richmond, the tennis team; and Steve Starr captained his second team, the track team, with Al Bracy holding up the managerial end.

'way back in September. We were definitely growing up, and the Frosh looked pretty green. As this paper goes to press, we are almost up to the last tape, with our last vacation over and the time growing short. We are looking forward to Commencement with a mixed feeling of regret and anticipation, but anyway, we will miss the old Hill and all we did here. But we've had a swell time, and we're sorry to go.

No longer must we climb out of warm beds for first hour classes; never again will we have to surround our vacant heads with immense books and cram the contents of the one into the void of the other; and for the last times we have attended Thursday chapels, lounged between classes on the library steps, indulged in "cokes" in the Bookstore, strolled through the gold of the campus night-lights, and kissed "goodnights" on Jackson porches. The Hill will forever stand guard over these class memories, ready to remind us of the days and nights of joy that have been ours in our short stay here.

We may return to these stately buildings, recapture our friends, and meet and joke with our professors once again; but never will we find the same pulsing happiness here that has been ours prior to graduation. New loves, new friends, and new work will steal into our hearts and fill the great cavity left by the withdrawing college life. We will always hold the memories of these four years deep in our hearts, and the things that we have learned in this chapter of our lives will make the coming chapters that much more interesting and successful. Class of 1937, GOOD LUCK!

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement week end marks the end of our activities as undergraduates of the College, and it is important that it be a successful one. To the various committees and orators we have delegated these duties. Our Class Day Committee is composed of Fran Cahill, Bill Errgong, and Bill Young, while Phil Kramer, Rog Arnold, and Lloyd Lister make up the Banquet Committee.

The positions of Commencement Orators are the highest of Commencement honors. To Dick Beal and Ken Hay go these distinctions. The chief funny-man for the Tree Exercises will be Leigh Harris, while Chapel Orator will be Don Simonds.

OFFICERS

Much of the success of a class is due to its class officers. Here again the Class of 1937 was fortunate in picking such fine ones, not counting the Historian, to carry on its administration.

This year, we are represented by Dave Bowers, Jack Rendall, Jim Lillis, Bob Boyd, Rog Keith, and Dick Parks.

Bill Goodall, Rendall, Boyd, Bill Young, and Keith were at the helm in our Junior year, repeating their Sophomore success.

As Freshmen, we had two sets of officers. The permanent ones consisted of Goodall, Gil Harlow, Jim Crowley, Boyd, and Keith, while in the big yell-fest for temporary officers, Johnnie Boyd, Ralph Kaye, Craig Murdock, Bob Boyd, and Fran Cahill had the most guys to yell for them.

SCHOLASTICS

We always look with awe at our Phi Betes and Tau Betes, as they represent the highest there is in scholastic achievement.

In Phi Beta Kappa, the Class presents its brain-trusters in Dick Beal, Don Fairfield, Mike Ginsberg, Dave Goldenberg, and Aaron Levine. Our Tau Betes are Ed Crowley, Ken Hay, Len Donoghue, Warren Fleming, Bill Goodall, Gil Harlow, Dick Hunt, Ralph Kaye, Ed Loud, Don Maxwell, Walt Morton, Carl Moberg, Ed Flint, and Dick Stewart.

Two other winners of scholastic prize awards, given at the annual occasion of Academic Honors, are very much worthy of mention. Rog Keith was awarded the Prize Scholarship of the Class of 1882, as the student best exemplifying the combination of ability in athletics and excellence in scholarship; and Linc Redshaw was awarded the Bennett Memorial Scholarship as the student best exemplifying the qualities of true sportsmanship.

JACKSON

While sojourning four years as a history major in Jackson College I spent many happy hours, if one can term them as such, reading the great works of our modern historians. I have a great sympathy now with the most eminent historians of our modern age, because I have often heard them severely criticized by some worthy students as being extremely dull. It is not my purpose to make this treatise any duller than their works; but if it is, I hope that you will excuse it because history, after all, is only history.

Our first officers were Virginia Goddard, president; Jean Barker, vice-president; Nancy Ellis, secretary; Dorothy Ruggles, A. A. representative; and Emilie Farnsworth, treasurer. They served us through the first few months and then we started to shift around. For a while it seemed as though we were running weekly elections. The final results showed that we selected Betty Spain, president; Rita Brennan, vice-president; Virginia Besse, secretary; Emilie Farnsworth, treasurer; Gertrude Elliot, marshal; Betty Buchan, social chairman; Frances Brooks, All Around Club representative; and Edith Jensen, historian.

During that year we did a few things along with the elections. Freshman sing was a great success. We learned on good authority that the sophomores were more afraid of us than we were of them that night. Among the athletes that year we had Ruth Parks, Mary Montague, Virginia Besse, Betty Buchan, Audrey Moran, Emilie Farnsworth, Betty Burtch, Betty Harris, Tina Sharkey, and Bea Babcock. Dramatics attracted Esther Slack, Eleanor Dwyer, Gert Elliot, Dot Ruggles, Ginny Besse, Evelyn Lawson, Kay Scott, Eleanor Slafsky, and Elaine Kelleher; while Ruth Griffin and Barbara Badmington worked on the Tuftonian.

Perhaps two of the greatest dates that spring were our own Tea Dance at the Commander in Cambridge, which was a success socially (we won't mention the financial aspect), and Junior Day when it was announced that Virginia Goddard was elected to serve as secretary-treasurer of Student Government. Jean Barker was chosen secretary of the All Around Club, and Betty Harris as treasurer of the Athletic Association for the coming year. At last we were started on our way toward becoming upperclassmen.

Sophomore year we showed more of our ability in several fields. Gert Elliot as "Mamie, the Queen of the Bowery", in "Gold in the Hills", showed her great talent which emerged upon several occasions throughout the remaining two and one half years. That year more of our class went out for athletics. Irma Thompson, Martha Dowse, Elizabeth Packer, Jean Barker, Agnes Gallagher, Edith Jensen, and Gert Elliot were all added to those who participated in sports our freshman year. Dramatics attracted Jennie Jacques, June Coolidge, and Audrey Moran, as well as those who went out the first year. "The Queen's Husband", "Gold in the Hills", and "Counsellor at Law", were the three major productions.

In early March, Jean Barker died. One of our most talented members, she lived her few years to greatest advantage, and in her brief stay with us made many friends who respected and admired her for her excellence in scholarship, good sportsmanship, willingness to co-operate, and her likeable personality.

Spring brought elections again with a few changes in results. Betty Spain, Emilie Farnsworth, Gert Elliot, and Edith Jensen all retained their positions, with the following new officers: Nancy Ellis, vice-president; Dot Ruggles, secretary; Audrey Moran, social chairman; and Grace Kelly, All Around Club representative. In addition to the announcement of these officers we discovered that Betty Spain was to be vice-president of Student Government; Gert Elliot, vice-president of All Around Club; and Virginia Besse treasurer of the same organization.

Junior year was our busiest. In the early fall the Panhellenic dance was made a success largely through the efforts of Evelyn Lawson, Phyl Brug, Betty Harris, and Virginia Besse; Frances Mayo won a prize in the Greenwood Readings; the juniors won class hockey, and everything was under way in grand style. That year we had Mary Montague, Irma Thompson, Betty Burtch, and Ruth Parks playing varsity hockey, with Edie Jensen, Doris Russell, and Betty Harris as manager and assistants respectively.

Dramatics came in again very strongly. "Dr. Knock" and "Paths of Glory" were the two chief successes of the year. Our class seemed full of talent and many of our members played important parts both as actors and on the stage crew.

Junior week end was the greatest event of the year. Good weather, good music, good fun, and above all our red and white junior blazers. Prom and Joe Haymes, with Ivy Society chasing its elephants, was a huge success. Junior Day was the most beautiful day of spring, warm and balmy, the ideal day for our festivities and incidentally for our blazers. Chapel awards gave us our greatest opportunity to show our supremacy. At last we could be the top. We chose Betty Harris as president of Student Government; Gert Elliot, president of All Around Club; Edith Jensen, president of the Athletic Association and Glee Club; Ruth Parks, Outing Club chairman; Evelyn Lawson, president of Panhellenic; Kay Scott, Evelyn Lawson, Ginny Besse, Gert Elliot, and Eleanor Slafsky, on 3 P's; Barbara Badmington, editor-in-chief of the Tuftonian; Florence Fazio as Jackson editor of the Weekly; Betty Buchan as feature editor of the Weekly and Jackson editor of the Jumbo Book; and accompanying them were the following class officers: Marguerite McKay, president; Nancy Ellis, vice-president; Dot Ruggles, secretary; Emilie Farnsworth, treasurer; Gert Elliot, marshal; Gibby Kelly, All Around Club representative; Audrey Moran, social chairman; and I still seem to be historian. Our athletes came in for their share of awards on Junior Day, and Irma Thompson took high honors by winning her Athletic blazer and the captaincy of basketball. Mary Montague was announced as hockey captain, with Doris Russell as manager. In tennis we found that Ginny Goddard was chosen to manage that sport for the coming year.

Spring and summer passed very quickly and in September 1936 we came back to discover that we were seniors. Such a realization didn't come quickly, but when we started going to our "last" of everything we all began to think over the fact that we could no longer plan on coming back another year as students. I might add that most of us claimed no sentimental attachment to our "last" midyears.

Hockey season was very successful. Irma, Ruth, Mary, and Betty were all instrumental in our wins over Pembroke and Radcliffe. Arline Merrill assumed managership of the team when it was found necessary for Doris to have her appendix removed.

The class of 1937 showed its scholastic prowess when time came for Academic Awards. Arline Merrill was chosen Jackson Commencement Orator and won the Alpha Omicron Pi prize; Frances Mayo won the Alpha Xi Delta Scholarship; Emilie Farnsworth took the Chi Omega award; Virginia Goddard won the Chemistry prize; Eleanor Dwyer won a prize in the Greenwood Prize Reading contest; and Arline Merrill, Frances Mayo, Helen McNally, E. Louise Jewell, Ruth Griffin, and Virginia Goddard were elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Dramatics came into the limelight when it was voted to add one dollar to the term bill of each student for this activity. "A Dash of Red" and "Squaring the Circle" and "Kind Lady" were the three major productions of the fall and winter seasons, with something new and especially good promised for the spring.

In February we chose our Commencement officers. Eleanor Kelley was elected Tree Orator; Mac McKay, Chapel Orator; Ginny Goddard, Betty Spain, Emilie Farnsworth were on the Class Day committee; while Nancy Ellis, Tina Sharkey, and Gerry Stott took charge of our banquet.

Four of our pleasantest years are over. We have changed in many respects; we have lost a few of our original members, and we have acquired a few new ones. Several girls are wearing diamonds and fraternity pins, and Janet Sherman, June Coolidge, and Camilla Labuz are married. We are all hoping for most successful futures, and hope that as separate units of the class of 1937 we may be as successful as we were as a whole.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council controls and regulates all matters concerning student life and activities. It is composed of members from the various major organizations on the Hill. The work of the council is to deal with the problems and suggestions brought up by the extra-curricular activities. The council serves an important purpose in its relations with councils of other colleges and tends to bring Tufts College into closer relationship with the neighboring collegiate institutions.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Jackson Student Council is composed of the President of each class; a House President from each dormitory; and a President, Vice-President, and Secretary-Treasurer elected by the entire student body. There is also an off-Hill representative chosen by the off-Hill students, and an N.S.F.A. secretary elected by the council. The presidents of All Around Club and J. A. A. are sometimes invited to attend meetings where infractions of college rules are to be discussed. The council also aids in the entertainment of the sub-freshmen and sponsors the formal dinners held in the College dining halls each month.

THREE "P's"

This society of actors and actresses, stage hands and make-up artists, and writers and salesmen, has presented much in the way of dramatic entertainment to the College during the past year. The farcical "Squaring the Circle", the mystery-drama "Kind Lady", and the comedy "Hay Fever" were excellently dramatized. The three original one-act plays, written by members of the play-writing class, were as good as ever. A feature of the year was the afternoon speakers obtained for the College community as a whole; members of the casts of "Brother Rat" and "Jane Eyre" were enjoyed.

DEBATING COUNCIL

Working under a new policy of fewer debates than in the past, with the hope of raising the quality of debating, the Tufts Debating Council participated in but five debates this year. Competition was restricted to the second semester, and the five colleges met included Union, Hamilton, Bates, Bowdoin, and Radcliffe; the latter two debates were held at Tufts in the Goddard Chapel. Training in broadcasting was given along with platform speaking. The institutions met are outstanding on the list of debating schools.

TUFTS WEEKLY

During the school year of 1936-37, the Tufts Weekly has not faltered in its position of chief news organ to the college community, as well as to all alumni and friends of the school. A consistently high standard both in the type and amount of news which has been presented was maintained over the entire year. The editors are to be congratulated on the publication of three extra supplement issues. At the close of the football season a special supplement carried the teams' pictures and record with appropriate comments. In the issue closest to All Fool's Day the peak was reached in the colored and completely different April Fool edition. The publication of a supplement concerning Engineering Night and the Engineering school in general featured the last weeks of this year's series of Weekly publications.

TUFTONIAN

The Tuftonian is a literary magazine at Tufts. Last year it completed the first decade in its life since re-establishment in 1926. The Tuftonian Board is a group of elected persons whose function is to select and present in the magazine the best from the literary talent available from the student body. This task is sometimes made peculiarly difficult by a somewhat paradoxical situation wherein a rather large group offer much non-constructive criticism, yet are unwilling to provide either constructive ideas or usable material. If the Tuftonian of the next decade is to maintain the high standard of that of the last in literary excellence and interest, it must have the interested support of the undergraduate body.

JUMBO BOOK

The Jumbo Book staff is a group of students representing the various classes whose duty it is to compile and publish the college annual. There are many various interests included in the one project: photography, art work, writing, editorial planning, publicity, advertising, and class contact work.

This year's book is centered around candid photographs as representative of the life of the Hill. It is the first time the book has been printed throughout in two colors. We hope it pleases, and may it tax the ingenuity and originality of future editorial staffs to surpass the 1937 Jumbo Book.

GLEE CLUB

This year, as in past years, the Tufts Glee Club has made a showing for which only praise was heard. Up to the publication date two concerts have been given: the first in the First Universalist Church of Salem, the second in the auditorium of the Wakefield High School. In these the program of the semi-centennial club of last year, with both the Jackson and Tufts Glee Clubs doing individual and combination numbers, supplemented by the school orchestra, was used. This program served to furnish a very well rounded evening of musical entertainment. For the remaining concerts of the year a new program is being compiled, and it is expected that Jackson and Tufts will have separate schedules for their Glee Club concerts which will round out the year's musical season. As is the custom, an "on hill" concert in the Goddard Chapel by all the musical organizations is expected to be the feature musical event of the year.

BAND

Displaying the skill of a well trained musical organization, the band has won again its great popularity on the Hill. Under the able leadership of Mr. Chidester, the band has been one of the attractions at the home football games. On its trips to Providence and Brunswick, it amazed the spectators with its many formations and stirring selections. Because of the great enthusiasm shown by the forty odd members of the band this season, Mr. Chidester hopes to make the band the best in New England next fall.

Tufts o—R. I. State Rams 7. On a damp, wet field, a plucky Tufts team continually threatened a favored, heavier Rhode Island State club, which had already played three previous contests, and it was as a result of its inexperience that Tufts was defeated. Although the Jumbo gridsters tallied twice, both touchdowns were called back because of technicalities, and thus the game was lost.

Tufts 18—Colby White Mules o. In a driving, drenching rain the Tufts "toughies" paradoxically enough handed the Colby Mule the proverbial kick and booted their opponent all over the muddy field to score a decisive win. Employing an offense consisting of line plunges and off-tackle smashes, with an occasional forward thrown in for good measure, the Hillbillies were in the Colby back yard for most of the day.

Tufts o—Williams Purples 6. It was Homecoming Day at Williams. The sun was shining. The opposing Tufts eleven scored thrice during the game. Three times the officials nullified the scores on technicalities, and although the Manly Men outplayed the Caldwell Club, they lost a heartbreaker when, in a fatal moment of relaxation, the Tufts secondary allowed the opportune Simmons of Williams to sneak through for the only score of the game.

Tufts 7—Brown Bruins 38. A faster, heavier, superior Brown team completely outclassed a lethargic invading club, which, having held them 12-7 the first half, fell to pieces the second half and allowed scores to be made almost at will on long runs and forward passes.

Tufts o—New Hampshire Wildcats o. Though outplayed during the first period by a strong Wildcat eleven, a courageous Jumbo grid machine recovered sufficiently in the second period to outplay the opposition for the remainder of the fray. At one point Tufts had the ball on the two-yard stripe with four downs to go. Three rushes and a pass were repulsed. In the third period New Hampshire threatened to score when Patten and an interferer eluded the entire Tufts defense and galloped toward the goal line, seemingly for a score, only to be tripped up by safety man Collier.

Tufts 13—Bowdoin Polar Bears o. A bruised and battered Tufts team, sporting a record of one win, one tie, and three losses, was figured to be mashed and mauled by the powerful Bowdoin Polar Bear, only the previous week crowned champion of the State of Maine. With the exception of the Tufts Weekly, there was not a publication in the country which conceded the Medford Hillbillies a chance in a thousand. A determined, aggressive Tufts line outcharged a bewildered Bowdoin forward wall. A fast and tricky Tufts backfield outran and outpassed a dazed Bowdoin quartet—in short, the Manly Magicians were too perfect for their cocky competitors.

Tufts 13—Mass. State Aggies o. Though outrushed and outplayed for the majority of the game, an eager, though injured, Jumbo squad managed to score twice and hold their advantage. The first touchdown came as a result of a wild State center pass captured by Redshaw and three successive forwards by Philpott, the final heave being to Spath, who also scored a second time on a seventy-four yard run back of a punt. Thus is terminated the successful record of the team of 1936.

BASKETBALL

Coach ARTHUR COCHRAN

The surprise was the defeat of the strong Worcester Poly quintet on the latter's home floor. The Worcester crowd had previously taken a fall out of the record-breaking Rhode Is'and five and the game with Tufts was expected to be a push-over. The Medford boys, however, had different ideas and, under the scoring leadership of Tony Wojy, came back with a 28–27 victory.

Previous to this game, Tufts had won games from American International College and Brown, while dropping close ones to Rutgers and the nearby Boston University outfit. The first game with the Internats was a breather, and the final score read Tufts 41, Internats 26. Two successive losses followed. Boston University, flashing Solly Nechtem for the first time, slapped a 35 to 28 defeat on Cochran's boys, and Rutgers came out of New Jersey a few days later and won at the Cousens Gym, 29 to 18.

In the game with M.I.T. the mediocre Engineers skinned through with a single-point win. The final was M.I.T. 28, Tufts 27, the same score by which Tufts had nipped Brown earlier in the season. The Alumni made their annual trip to the Gym, sporting the usual number of famous names and unconditioned physiques. Grinnell, Radvilas, Harris, Kavanaugh, Cochrane, Woodworth, and Appiani were among the men who represented the grads. However, they lost, gracefully but decisively, 35 to 28.

During the mid-year vaca ion, the team journeyed to the Hills of Hanover and took a 63 to 21 scalping from the Dartmouth Indians. They met University of New Hampshire at home; and, with Bennie Collier and Phil McConnell throwing in baskets from all over the floor, Tufts tasted revenge to the tune of 54 to 32.

This victorious session proved to be the stop-gap necessary to check the slumping spirit of the Jumbo followers. Heartened by this grand exhibition, a record crowd jammed the Boston Avenue den of the basketeering boys of the Brown and Blue. Led again by the aforementioned Mr. Nechtem, the Terriers went back to town with a 40 to 32 victory. Nechtem hit the bull's eye seven times in the last quarter.

The trip to Williams followed; and, despite the fine play of Jimmy Weldon and Lew Kyrios, the boys in Purple took the game, 33 to 25. Insult was added to injury in the next game when the basket-hungry Rhode Island State quintet rolled into the Cousens Gym, picked up an easy 59 to 32 victory, and rolled out again with their 13th win of the year. The losing streak was finally snapped against Northeastern when Tufts gained the only win of the year over a local team. The final was Tufts 28, Huskies 25. An attempt to duplicate, however, against Harvard failed. Capt. Earnie Gray sank 17 points on rebound shots to pave the way for the 41 to 25 victory. Johnny Boyd, who had long since broken into the starting line-up, featured the second victory of the year against Brown. He aided the Tufts cause to the extent of 16 points, the largest figure assembled by any Jumbo hoopster in a single game during the entire season. It was here, however, that Tufts stopped winning for the year. The traditional game with Mass. State followed, and though Tufts played fine basketball for the first half, they tired and finally succumbed to the fast-breaking Staters.

The final game of the season was played at Springfield against the celebrated Gymnasts. Here again Tufts played like champions for the first half of the game and grew weary early in the second half. The final score of 36 to 33 is no disgrace against Springfield, who was considered by many to have the best team in New England. Capt. Lew Kyrios climaxed three memorable years of varsity hoop play by treating the Springfield fans to the finest brand of basketball they have seen in a long time.

Coach KENNETH NASH

The schedule shows that Tufts' varsity had a disappointing season as far as wins are concerned, but the team wasn't as bad as the scores might indicate. It was as good a team as Tufts has had in years—except for the pitching. It will be noted that when the pitching was good, the team became balanced and won ball games. We had a somewhat strong defense which was also fast and alert. The batting average was low as is traditional with Tufts' teams, and while each member of the team did fine work from time to time—Harris, Collier and Spath deserve special mention for their continued splendid service.

The season got off to a fast start when the Jumbos behind the masterful pitching of Izzy Harris crashed through in a brilliant 8 to 2 victory over B. U. and its star pitcher Sandercock. The boys played a fine defensive game afield, and it looked as if a brilliant future were in store for the team. Tufts ran off another victory against Lowell Textile as Harris pitched a no-hit game for 8 innings—a single in the 9th ruining the pitcher's perfect game.

The overworked Harris had to be retired after developing a wild streak in the 3rd inning of the Brown game when the Bruins eased in 6 runs. The whole team began to fail—weak hitting, bad fielding, etc.—the game was lost 10-0. The team remained in poor form for the remainder of the week, taking a licking of 8-3 from the Huskies of Northeastern. Radvilas, Harris and Bristol left the box in turn as they tendered 2 free tickets apiece—allowing Northeasterners to walk to victory.

As Harris stepped back on the mound against B. C. the team rallied behind him to defeat the highly touted Eagles 3-1. Notable in this game was Donnelly's double scoring and Coclough's 13 putouts at first. Harris allowed but 2 singles.

The Polar Bears from Bowdoin batted the breezes for 7 ½ innings while Harris again delighted the home fans with his pitching. Tufts tallied 4 points to the Bears' lucky 3.

Smarting under the early season defeat, B. U. with its clever Vin Sandercock on the mound downed the Jumbos to the count of 9-1. Tufts booted 4 bad errors behind Harris' alternatives—Tony Wojy, Bristol, McCurtain. Soon after, the boys journeyed to Fitton field to face Connie Mack's Lefty Lefebvre and the heavy stickers of Holy Cross defeated our boys 10-3. This defeat was quickly followed by another at the hands of Northeastern as the home boys failed to hold an early lead. Lillis' three hits featured this game. Gus Rook of the Huskies allowed Tufts eleven hits but was allowed to stay the whole game to make it his second win over Tufts this season.

The Tufts bats really resounded at the oval on May 16th when our team outclassed the Mass. Staters 14-3. This was the first victory over the traditional rivals in 3 years and the one-sided count made the victory emphatic and sweet. Harris was hot this day and the team lent him ready support.

After this fine showing against Mass. State, the Tufts boys started on their disastrous R. I. tour, during which Captain Donnelly's boys were downed by three of the fastest clubs in New England—R. I., Providence and Brown on consecutive days. Collier's bat featured the play; he homered against Providence and bashed a very long triple against the State team. Wojy looked like a comer after relieving Harris in the R. I. game where he allowed but 1 single in 6 innings. Silvester and McGee, a couple of Sophomores, managed to break into the play and together with their classmate, Collier, should help out Captain-elect Spath and his '37 team.

The Jackson Athletic Association is composed of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer elected by the entire student body. In addition, there is a Freshman representative chosen by her own class, and the managers of all sports are automatically members. This body is one of the most active college organizations, sponsoring both intercollegiate and intramural athletic activities.

The team kept up the good work of last year, losing only to its greatest rival—Wheaton. The girls will always carry in their memory the home game with Pembroke; not only because of the victory, but because of the temperature. The good spirit and teamwork which the Jackson teams have shown has been due mainly to the excellent example and training of Coach Lincks.

The members of the team were very grateful to the new coach, Miss Dexter, for her untiring efforts to introduce and perfect new plays. Several freshmen have displayed and proved their ability to play excellent basketball, therefore the team of 1938 ought to enjoy a most successful season.

TENNIS

Tennis is one of the Jackson sports that draws a large list of aspirants. The spirit of the team has always been good and their success equally marked. The 1936 matches with Pembroke, Radcliffe, and Wheaton were very close, with Jackson winning more than their share. In the fall, tennis is an intra-mural sport for which a cup is given to the winning team.

Archery has found a great deal of interest at Jackson since its introduction seven years ago. In 1936, a team of eight competed in the National Telegraphic meet in which about four hundred colleges took part. INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Tufts College Interfraternity Council is composed of one senior and one junior delegate from each of the nine fraternities represented on Hill. It serves a major purpose in promoting the good fellowship that exists between the fraternal organizations. The body is a chapter member of the National Interfraternity Council. The formulation and enforcement of rushing regulations is one of the Council's duties. The Council is also responsible for the rules of annual interfraternity competitions.

KAPPA CHAPTER

Established in 1855

Chief among the highlights at the Zeta Psi house during the past year was the return in the fall to a house completely renovated and therefore a much more desirable place in which to live. Forced, with several other fraternities, to postpone rushing for a week, the Zetes brought the first Freshman through the front door just as the last paperhanger was making his exit from the rear door. First on the social calendar was a mammoth and completely successful housewarming held on "Homecoming Day" and featured by the presence of the national president of Zeta Psi. Other social occasions included frequent and successful house parties with the chief event the Pledge Dance held in the house on December eighteenth. In March the house was the scene of a wedding reception following a ceremony in Goddard Chapel, an event which it is hoped will inaugurate a custom with Zete graduates of using the house's common rooms for their own social occasions. As this is written, plans are being made for a Spring Formal to be held the latter part of May. Events actually part of fraternity ceremony have included several initiations and frequent visits and speeches by outstanding graduate guests. The traveling secretary of Zeta Psi is expected in the early days of May and his presence will be the occasion for the annual initiation banquet. Zeta Psi looks forward with other fraternities to a future in which fraternities will play an increasingly conspicuous part in the life of the Hill.

KAPPA CHARGE

Established in 1856

Like most of the other fraternities, Kappa Charge of Theta Delta Chi commenced the fall activities with an intensive week of rushing. From this we had the pleasure of emerging with the greatest number of pledges—pro tem, at least. These pledges were properly regaled at the Pledge Formal, held late in the fall at the Charge House.

Grad night, late in October, found several score loyal brothers returning to get in touch once again with Charge affairs. Next prominent event—in dearth of the Turkey Trot—was the annual Christmas Formal, with joke gifts, usual and unusual, distributed from a Christmas tree at the hand of Santa Claus (our worthy president). Inspired by the Christmas spirit, we recommenced soon after vacation the practice of inviting down to Thursday dinner one or more faculty guests, even more of a pleasure to us than to them. Another enjoyable feature of dining has been the frequent singing of fraternity songs—and selected others.

Although we did not win any first places in interfraternity sports, we did enjoy participating and supporting our men in their valiant efforts to put us on top.

One of the most celebrated events of the year was the election of officers and the annual jamboree afterwards to Medford Square, which took place right after Spring Vacation. Another was the usual big Junior week end wherein spreads, dances, and general open house was enjoyed to the utmost. And so to another Jumbo Book.

TUFTS CHAPTER

D. U.'s of Tufts will long remember the Fiftieth Anniversary Year of 1937. As a fitting celebration for such a significant occasion, over one hundred alumni and undergraduates gathered at the Parker House on December third to greet with enthusiasm the announcement that a new house would be ready for occupancy in the fall. Not only will the chapter house occupy the highly desirable Knight House location, but it will also be of the latest design.

Under the able leadership of the Boyd brothers, the chapter of sixty members functioned with all the smoothness of a much smaller group. The rushing season was a success both quantitatively and qualitatively and resulted in the group initiation of twelve men in March.

Driven by a desire to retain the big cup, the fraternity played its usual prominent part in interfraternity sports. Socially, too, 1937 was a banner year. The poverty party was the most successful of the numerous "vic" parties, while the Freshman-Senior Dance will long be remembered by all who attended. For those who like more sophisticated entertainment, the three formal dances left nothing to be desired.

With a new chapter house, a strong membership, and the usual D.U. spirit the Tufts chapter of Delta Upsilon should maintain its high standing in the years to come.

BETA MU CHAPTER

Established in 1889

Outstanding among the activities and events of Delta Tau Delta during the current year was the completion of the new house and its official dedication and laying of the cornerstone by President Cousens on November 21. On that same date an Alumni Smoker was held after the Tufts-Mass. football game. The response of the alumni and their interest in the new house were gratifying features of the occasion. Entertainment by Bud Williams added to the success of the affair.

Our pledge formal, held at the house on November 27, was the first of a series of successful social events for the season. The annual spring formal was held at Arlmont Country Club on May 7.

A formal initiation banquet was held at the house on February 28 at which time seven pledges were initiated as members of the fraternity. Dr. Paul A. Warren was the guest speaker, and his address was both impressive and significant. Richard Parks served as toastmaster. Three other initiations were held during the year.

The new officers assumed their positions on April 12. The following men were elected: President, Albert E. Anderson '39; Vice-President, C. Lyman Richardson '38; Marshal, William C. Shepard '39; Secretary, Nathan O. Parker '39; Treasurer, Malcolm C. Sherman '38.

GAMMA BETA CHAPTER

Established in 1893

Gamma Beta Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega has enjoyed one of its most prosperous years within the friendly walls of a new house, presented to us by our Alumni Association.

At the close of the fall rushing season, our membership reached a new high of sixtynine with the group of sixteen Freshman pledges. Two initiations have been held and the annual banquet for the initiates was held at the house with Dean Wren and Prof. George S. Miller as guests. A banquet was also given in honor of the Alumni Association, followed by a smoker and open-house, in gratitude for their gift to our brotherhood.

Socially, A T Ω has had a swell year. The pledge formal started things off last fall at the Hotel Sheraton. Later on, the Freshmen reciprocated with a barn dance. A Swing Party was held in April, at which the newly acquired bowling cup was presented. The Spring Formal in May was held at the Andover Country Club with Frank McGinley's band supplying the melody. On Hill Vic Parties filled up any otherwise open week ends.

The annual Mother's Day Tea gathered a crowd of interested parents to see the new house. Spreads were held on Junior and Class days. Also, as an innovation, we gave a dinner for fifteen underprivileged children of Somerville, choices being made by the Mayor.

A T Ω has been very successful thus far in the interfraternity competition for a big annual cup, having won the first three sports—basketball, squash, and wrestling. Hopes are high, and spirits higher for an equally fine 1937–1938 season in the same friendly walls.

OMICRON CHAPTER

A few days before the school year opened the Phieppes had an alumni reunion and general get-together at a frater's farm in Norfolk, Mass. The boys were scarcely dry from the swimming hole out there when "rush week" started. After the tumult of that open season the house fell easily into the accustomed channels of fraternity activity. A pledge formal at the Woodland Country Club got the tux out of moth balls, and a poverty party served to emphasize the fact that the depression was fast departing. The usual round of house parties, vic dances, and social gatherings obtained, varied now and then by those interludes known only to fraternity men.

Practically en masse the men went to the national convention in New York at New Year's. A few weeks later the hang-overs had almost entirely disappeared, so another formal was held at the Parker House. Something in the air at this time got the fellows to thinking that it wouldn't be a bad idea to build a new house, so plans were discussed and a program drawn up. A last Phieppe formal for the year was held at the Bear Hill Country Club in May. Then the Juniors look forward to their last year, and the Seniors look back at a college career completed. This tragic fact was duly commemorated at a traditional Senior Dinner held in June. The Seniors presented the House with a radio and vic combination, and the House presented each Senior with an engraved fraternity paddle.

MU CHAPTER

One of the best years since its founding was enjoyed by the Mu Chapter of Sigma Omega Psi Fraternity in 1936–1937.

In the revived New England-Chapters of S.O.P. Basketball Tourney held early in March, Mu won the third leg on the cup, trouncing Boston University 45 to 8 and beating Worcester Poly in the finals 25 to 13. The team included Captain Collier and Atlas at the forwards, Rottenberg at center, and Goldman and Rossman at back positions. Substitutes were Feinberg, Novick, and Cohen.

In respect to social events, pledge activities were especially prominent the first semester. These included a Freshman Get-Together at the Hotel Woodbridge, Somerville, in September, a pledge party in October and a Pledge Formal at the Brunswick Casino in Boston held on Thanksgiving Day. An initiation banquet in honor of the five frosh and three sophs was held in February in the main dining room of the Hotel Woodbridge. John Holmes of the Tufts faculty was guest of honor.

Besides the monthly house parties other events included an Alumni Smoker in March at which a permanent Alumni Association was formed with the officers, Philip Hamburg, President, Philip Polansky, Vice-President, and David Karas, Secretary-Treasurer. The Spring Formal was held at the new Southland in Boston on April 16. On May 10 a group of sub-freshmen were feted at the House after which they attended a baseball game with B. U. as the Tufts' opponents. The season's activities closed with a farewell banquet on May 23.

A precedent was established when elections were held at midyears. Officers are—Zimman, High Potentate; Oppenheim, Potentate; Atlas, Comptroller; Berenson, Scribe; Collier, Marshal; and Lenson, Chaplain.

TAU CHAPTER

Established 1931

While Tau Chapter failed to erect a new house to compete with the other Tufts fraternities, but laid plans for a new abode for next year, the National Chapter initiated and installed four new chapters. Since September, A K Pi has founded chapters at Franklin & Marshall College, a rival of the Tufts wrestling team, Tri-State College, the University of Cincinnati, and the University of Toledo.

During the Christmas vacation, the annual A K Pi convention was held at the Hotel Pennsylvania, in New York. Professor Robinson Abbott and Kenneth Hay attended as the delegates from Tau.

March twenty-third marked the sixteenth anniversary of the founding of the fraternity at Newark College of Engineering. Conventions and anniversaries seemed to be the diet of the alumni this year, and to insure enough of them, they held monthly meetings, furthering the extensive drive for funds for the new house. On May third they were tendered a banquet at the house, followed by one of their meetings.

With reference to the activities of the undergraduate members: we have held four initiations, strengthening the membership enrollment by fifteen, and have pledged twenty new men.

NU IOTA CHAPTER

Established 1934

Foremost among the many eventful happenings of the year 1936-37 in the Phi Mu Delta Fraternity was the competitive scholarship award of the miniature Jumbo by the faculty to this fraternity. This prize is given to the fraternity on hill ranking first in scholarship on the condition that it is to be held for one year, then awarded again.

Social functions, as the year passed on, were marked by steadily increasing attendance and that extremely friendly brotherly spirit such as very few fraternities of a larger size possess. Vic record parties were held on Saturday nights as voted by the house members in their regular Monday night meetings. Refreshments, dancing, and favors adorned these "Saturday night swing sessions." Monthly informals were held which grew to be very popular because of their setting. These informals took place at: the Penthouse of the Hotel Bradford, the Chopstick, Bob Berger's, the Grill Room of the Hotel Essex, the Brown Derby, and the Yen Ho. Formals: the Pledge Formal was held on Dec. 18 in the Penthouse of the Hotel Bradford to the music of that delightful swingster—Frankie Ward. The Annual Spring Formal was held at the Andover Country Club on May 14.

The first initiation of the year came on Nov. 22; the second on Feb. 25. Each was climaxed by a banquet at the Hotel Woodbridge. Guest speakers included Professor Earnest E. Leavitt of the faculty, a member of the fraternity. Many old Sigma Tau Alpha men of the era when the present chapter was local were also initiated.

The basketball team broke even, 6-6, in the Intramural Basketball Tournament, as but one veteran remained from the 1935-36 championship five. The top is in sight for next year.

The bowling team showed little of its 1934-35 calibre in competition. The track and wrestling teams were but mediocre; on the other hand great promise was shown for next year.

LAMBDA CHAPTER

Established in 1907

The activities of the Alpha Xi's take in all forms of college life, from the athletic field to the ballroom. Although the sorority tennis and basketball teams succeeded in winning several victories, it was on field day that their athletic efforts achieved first place, and as a consequence they received the trophy.

One of the most anticipated occasions of the season is the annual Mother's Day tea, where the mothers have a chance to meet their daughters' friends; last year this was held at the home of Mrs. Lewis Manly, one of our patronesses. Mrs. Edwin Wright, another patroness, held our annual Christmas party, where gifts are exchanged amid appropriate games. One of our newly elected patronesses is Mrs. Frederick Ireland, an English instructor at the College. Throughout the year other teas are held including one for our alumni. This gives the alumni a chance to become acquainted with our new members and last year it gave them an opportunity to view our newly furnished rooms.

April 17th is our Founder's Day celebration on which we always have an initiation and a banquet. At this, both actives and alumni speak; last year Mrs. Persis Hannah Brown was alumni speaker.

One of our most delightful formals of the year is that which comes in the spring. Our last was held at the Happy Valley Country Club where the romantic spot was enhanced by warm weather, sweet music, and a full moon. The fall formal is usually a dinner dance held in Boston.

In June, the year is brought to a close by a picnic given by the Freshmen to the Seniors. Crane's Beach was the spot last spring. And always the Alpha Xi Delta friendship prevails.

DELTA CHAPTER

Established in 1908

Among our social activities were two delightful formals held in the spring and fall. The scene of our last dance was the Bellevue Country Club, and our fall dance was at the Parker House. Several teas were held in conjunction with our alumni. One new idea tried out this year was to have open house in our rooms for all AO II alumni on Homecoming Day. Every Mother's Day we entertain in honor of our mothers. At Christmas time a party is always given by the chapter with the patronesses invited as guests. Two picnics are planned for each year, at which times we all go to the beach for weenie roasts. On Founder's Day in December, a banquet was held and a formal initiation took place afterwards. After the fall and spring initiations banquets are also held.

Athletically, we are represented in tennis, archery, basketball, hockey, and field day. This year we won the trophy for intersorority basketball.

For philanthropic work we send clothing and funds to the Kentucky Mountain Frontier Service, where we have our own AOII representative. For over eight years, we have assumed the care of a little girl there. Recently she has moved to Boston, but we still maintain responsibility for her clothes, dentist, etc. Money is raised for the care of Anna by means of a rummage sale in the fall.

Several of us attended the $AO\Pi$ Atlantic District Convention held in New York in September. We are now looking forward to our vacational convention in Yellowstone, at which Christine Nelson will be our representative.

CHI ALPHA CHAPTER

Established in 1910

Chi Alpha Chapter of Chi Omega started the season by entertaining its national treasurer, Mary Clay Williams. At the academic award ceremonies, Chi Alpha was fortunate in receiving the scholarship cup for the fourth consecutive year; the cup is given to the sorority having the highest mark averages throughout the previous year.

In athletics, Chi Omega won the tennis trophy in intersorority competition for an undefeated season, and also drew a second place in basketball.

In the fall, the patronesses were entertained at a tea given by the chapter in the rooms. The fall formal consisted of a dinner dance at the Fox and Hounds Club, and not long afterward the chapter was entertained by Professor and Mrs. Bartlett at a Christmas party. After a successful rushing season in which Chi Alpha pledged fourteen, a tea was given by the new members to the pledges of other sororities.

The spring banquet was celebrated with the alumni at Cambridge. The chapter has, as usual, kept up its social work at the Peabody Play House, including the teaching of adults and children in education and recreation.

Among the other activities, the chapter makes a point of having a get-together of the entire chapter at least once a month for a dinner. These, and our various other social, athletic, and scholastic successes, have given us a very enjoyable year.

OMICRON CHAPTER

Highlights of Sigma's social functions in '37 have had their emphasis in the three annual dances and various teas and bridges under the capable management of Helen Sharp. The fall formal at the Viking was a dinner dance and the floor show was provided by members of the chapter who entertained with songs and skits. Gert, this year's Prexy, gave her version of a Swedish flea trainer and his disobedient Olaf who jumped too high. The Pledge Dance given in conjunction with the other three sororities on hill proved a happy welcome to the six new pledges and the spring formal at the Andover Country Club, completing the dance schedule of the year, was tinged with sadness at the realization that it was the last dance the class of '37 would attend as members.

Two Panhellenic teas for the purpose of acquainting the new students with the sorority members served as a preview to the formal rush week in which every member participated. The rush party was at the home of Professor and Mrs. Houston and was characterized by Puritan costumes, songs, dances, puppet show, and a play. Betty Buchan was the Rushing Chairman and her committees were made up of other members of the Senior class. The fall and spring initiations were held in Packard and were followed by banquets at the Woodbridge.

Two Bridge Teas were given in Packard to earn the donation to the Maine Seacoast Mission Fund and as a National Philanthropic project the chapter gave John Holmes' book "Address To The Living" and Professor Myrick's thesis to the college library.

Other functions of the year were breakfasts given in the dormitory rooms, the Pledge Tea given by the pledges to the patronesses, suppers in the sorority rooms, an open alumni meeting, and the Mother's Day Tea, all contributing to the happiness and success of Omicron members in 1937.

Campus Trees

It has been a source of pride to the Bartlett Company to have been charged with the care and preservation of the campus shade trees at Tufts College for many years. The love and affection for cherished campus trees, healthy and beautiful, carried into later life by the graduates of the many colleges retaining Bartlett Service have been the influencing reason for many of our most pleasant client connections throughout the East.

Flash! Year Books Manufactured by THE COUNTRY LIFE PRESS

Awarded All-American Honors

IN THE recent nationwide All American Critical Service competition conducted by N. S. P. A., in which over 700 schools, colleges and universities were represented, highest All-American honors were awarded to Army's "Howitzer" and Navy's "Lucky Bag."

We offer our heartiest congratulations to the staffs of these winning Year Books, and we proudly bask in the reflection of their glory.

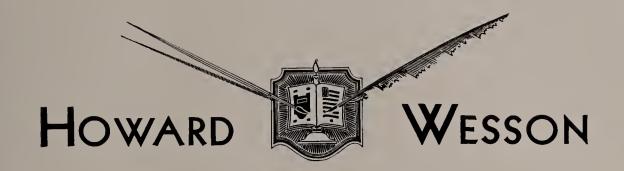

For both the "Howitzer" and the "Lucky Bag" were printed and bound at the Country Life Press, and it is the first time in history that a single organization has produced two All-American Year Books for these schools in the same year.

For twenty-five years, we have upheld the highest standards of quality in typography, reproduction, printing, binding, and general excellence of production. Our staff is competent, courteous, helpful and coöperative, and their services are at your disposal. We invite you to submit your Year Book plans for an estimate that will match your budget.

"Along the row and across the grass

A thousand thousand footsteps pass,

Are faint, and fainter, and then no more

On curving walks at the chapel door.

We walked the paths. We heard the bells.

We know the story the campus tells."
